FOREWORD

Our world, the world of the class of 1960, has been an attractive and inspiring one. Throughout our high school years we have explored new worlds in science, business, language, and human relations. Our activities even expanded to fill a new school; we found much to do. The memories of these high school years--the world we have known--we here record, but our world-to-be--the world unknown--prognosticates that there are "So many worlds, so much to do."

DEDICATION

to our

PRINCIPAL

The Romeo Family

The friend in need who always heals our pains,
A man who cannot help but earn our praise
For modesty, truthful, and in his ways
Inbred which no amount of laud can change.
We see this man in whose character reigns
Highest honor supreme. He'll spend his days
In helping any student through the maze
That school presents. Our silent guide who gains
But little in rewards from us or peers,
Whom lowly words cannot begin to thank
Or to repay the debt that's waiting due.
Our sincere efforts take with patient ears;
Since you to us hold high, unequaled rank, We Present these, our high school years, to YOU.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

So many worlds
So much to do

J.R.

EDWIN MARTINSON, SUPERINTENDENT

B.S., Tufts University; M.A. in Education, Tufts.

Go forth into the many busy worlds and love it. Strive to do for men rather than to covet their possessions. We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give. There are but two classes of people in this world: those who live to get cause war and poverty; those who live to give bring prosperity and peace.

"Secure, what e'er he gives, he gives the best."

. . . Edwin A. Martinson

HELEN E. SIMMONS

JAMES P. ROMEO, PRINCIPAL

B.S. in Education, University of New Hampshire
M. Education, Boston University

The time has come for you to leave Marshfield High School. We trust that you will take with you and cherish the virtues which develop our hearts, our characters, and which keep us honest and dependable. Thus we become the vital force for good to ourselves, our families, and our communities. If you continue to mold your life through sound thinking and moral courage you will assimilate thoughts and ideas that will enable you to keep in sharp focus the goals which you have set for yourselves. Wherever you may be, wherever you may go, at all times live up to the best that is in you for there are "So many worlds, so much to do." Do your part well.

"The mind is the standard of the man."

Our Senior year marks the conclusion of twelve traveled years of education; we look forward to the future with confidence, for "in ourselves our future lies." At present we find ourselves at cross roads, and before we proceed, one last glance over our shoulders seems vitally necessary to each of us. Our yesteryears will never live again except in memory; our future years are in ourselves.

Our 1960 TIDE holds records of three aspects of our high school world: memories from our world-of-yesterday, preparation in our world-of-today, and aspirations for our world-of-tomorrow. In our challenging world of tomorrow this book will refresh us and renew our ambitions. For the many suggestions and ideas we thank all in our school world.

HONOR SOCIETY

CALENDAR

In September the National Honor Society "opened its doors" to Jo Burgoyne, Peter Eisenhut, Bob Fernandes, Caroline Vogel, Janice Emery, Virginia Caswell, Robert Stengel, Nancy Fletcher, Doreen Banner, and Joan Rankin.

We were very proud to hear the news that Ed Fonseca and Bob Fernandes had been named to the All Scholastic Football Team and that five of our Seniors—Bill Davenport, Andy Burkhardt, Brad Stephens, Ed Fonseca, and Bob Fernandes--were selected for the May Shore League All-Star Team.

Both the Junior and Senior classes are to be commended for the two dramatic productions that they presented this fall. "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" and "Kind Lady" will be remembered for a long time to come. Special verbal bouquets go to the directors, Miss Thelma Jolivette and Mr. Richard Deasey.

We wish to thank the Student Council for decorating the lobby for the holiday season.

To Caroline Vogel goes the distinction of being the first M. H. S. Senior to be accepted to college for 1960. Caroline will be entering Wheaton in the fall of 1960 along with a scholarship awarded her by that college.

Marshfield High now has a school store thanks to the endeavors of the Business Club and its adviser, Mr. Jackson. It is the perfect place to buy a gift; Marshfield pennants and notebooks are among the merchandise on sale.

The Sophomore Class had a profitable season selling candy to the famished spectators at the football games.

A new club has recently been formed at Marshfield High. The Biology Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Searfoss, is open to all those students interested in the fascinating world around us out-of-doors. Join now--it is not too late.

HIGHLIGHTS

Mrs. Etelman's sophomore English class made our Thanksgiving more meaningful at the Thanksgiving Assembly Program. By means of "living portraits" these students and the Marshalairs depicted Thanksgiving from 1620 to 1959.

The highlight of our Armistice Day Program was the magnificent performance by the Marshalairs and Mr. Cowgill of the stirring "Ballad for Americans." Jack Flagg and Vincent Gookin were soloists.

The Junior class has been busy selling candy and Christmas cards to raise funds for their treasury. Hint: A new "Cargo" of candy is waiting in Room 32 to be sold--only one dollar a jar.

Phyllis Reed was named semi-finalist in the National Merit Scholarships and Henrietta Horne and Brad Stephens received letters of commendation. We have our fingers crossed for you, Phyllis!

We will not soon forget Ed Fonseca's ninety-six yard punt in the third quarter of the Hull-Marshfield game.

Eight Junior girls attended the tea given at Northeastern University this year. Deborah Mitchell, Gretchen Thomas, Pat Tobin, Carol Morrow, Sue Clark, Ann McNulty, Marsha Fader, and Pam Smith decided that Northeastern was not for them because the boys outnumber the girls 8 to 1!!

On December 3 the members of the football, the field hockey, track, baseball, and softball teams were rewarded for their fine accomplishments when the Marshfield Boosters Club gave a roast beef banquet for these athletes.

Student Council representatives Linda Mann, Peter Eisenhut, Jo Burgoyne, Sue Clark, Janice Emery, and Mr. Jackson attended the fall convention of the Southeast Massachusetts Association of Student Councils.

Tufts Professor To Give Poetry Talk At Assembly

MARSHFIELD — The public is invited to attend the assembly being held at Marshfield High School tomorrow morning, at 8:45 o'clock.

Prof. John Holmes of Tufts University will be the speaker and will lecture on "Understanding Poetry." Visiting college professors are part of the Advanced Placement English program.

Professor Holmes was poetry critic for the Boston Evening Transcript for eight years and at present he is a critic for such national publications as the New York Times Book Review. He has been director of the Chatauqua Writers' Workshop, is now director for the Writers' Workshop at Tufts University and president of the New England Poetry Club.

Dr. Holmes has been Phi Beta Kappa poet at Tufts, William and Mary, Brown and Harvard. For three years he has served as a judge for the Lamont Poetry Award and in 1958 he was on the poetry committee for the National Book Award.

He is the recipient of the William Rose Benet Poetry Prize. He has appeared in virtually every major literary magazine in America. His new book "The Fortune Teller" will be published in late 1960. He is at present checking galley-proofs of a new book called "Writing Poetry."

Miss Henrietta Horne is in charge of the program. Tom O'Neil will introduce Dr. Holmes to the assembly and Philip Michelini will conduct the religious services. Phyllis Reed and Linda Mann are in charge of publicity and invitations.

CHEERLEADERS

Let's YELL!

There's a school we all have learned to know,
It's the good old Marshfield High,
Where the teams all show them how to go
And the students stand right by;
We will sing today and cheer away
For our colors green and white.
We're the team that keeps the pep up
And the members stand for right . . .

We'll then be true to you,
The school we love,
As through each year we go,
And we will keep in mind and strive to hold
The standard of our school.
And as we swing along we'll sing our song
Of good times we have had,
So here's to our school days and to the
Good old Marshfield High.

SEASON'S HIGHLIGHTS

Before the first game, the team elected John Hubbard and Ken Johnson as co-captains. However, a new rule established at a league meeting last spring prevents a boy from participating in both track and baseball, so Coach Wilmot Reed formed the team with many inexperienced players. Nevertheless Marshfield finished the season with four wins and six losses.

After winning one out of the first three games, Marshfield conquered previously unbeaten Scituate behind the steady pitching of John Hubbard. Displaying fine school spirit, the team came roaring back in the last inning, scored three points, and won the game 3-2.

Coach Reed predicts a much more successful season next year because only three seniors will graduate, and Marshfield now has an experienced and well-balanced team.

Coach Vanasse congratulates pitcher Franny Hale.

This year, under the fine leadership of Coach Vanasse, the Marshfield High girls' softball team won the co-championship title.

Manager Linda Mann watched from the sidelines while co-captains Deidre Bullard and Francis Hale led our team to victory.

Although we lost our first game to Hull, 18-29, this did not dampen the girls' spirits. Our hard practicing paid off when we won the next game against East Bridgewater, 23-15. We continued our winning streak--Norwell 35-28, Hanover 23-1, West Bridgewater 32-24, Cohasset 27-12, Duxbury 19-7, and Scituate 39-16.

Our team owes a great deal to the inspiration of Coach Vanasse.

In spite of losing several seniors, the team is looking forward to a successful softball season next year. They are hoping that the incoming freshmen will help the team defend their present title or go on to win the championship.

Quincy Patriot Ledger, Wed., Nov. 4,

It required a 90-yard punt and a last-play to down, but little Marshfield High today has two of proudest records in schoolboy football.

The Marshfields have a winning streak of straight games, surpassed in the state only by the for Wayland and the 15 for Boston Latin.

Marshfield Attack Versatile

Fonseca and Steegle also are passers, along with quarterback Davis, so the Marshfield attack is versatile. Davis was benched with injuries for two games and Stengle moved to quarterback to continue the victory streak.

As for fullback Stephens Coach Anderson offers this:

"He's one of the best defensive backs on the South Shore. He makes about 70 percent of all tackles backing up the line."

Quarterback Davis and end Jim Domineau (159) are the only starting juniors and the nine others are seniors.

Charley Roswell at 145 pounds is one of the state's smallest tackles. He pairs with the 185-pound Bill Jordan.

At center is Bill Davenport (182). The guards are Ben Lembert (155) and Andy Burkhardt (162).

Burkhardt is senior class president and one of four national honor society students among the starters. The others include three

Hockey Team Off To Good Start

Marshfield High School's Girls Hockey team has begun its 1959 season. The first game, played October first, against Hingham, was won 3-0. Their second game with East Bridgewater, brought a 7-0 victory. The game played Tuesday, October thirteenth, the third of the season against West Bridgewater was won by Marshfield 6-0. Approximatcly thirty-five girls practice daily. Sixteen of these are considered the first team. The team has four top scorers: Gail Sheehan, Ginny Caswell, Dede Bullard and Judy O'Brien. In addition to the co-captains Jan Emery and Ginny Caswell, the first team includes: Judy O'Brien, Joanne Shepherd, Ellen Houghton, Jane Atwater, Dede Bullard, Gail Sheehan, Diane DeMulder, Linda Pentheny, Grethen Thomas, Anne McGuire, Henrietta Horne, Pat Frugoli, Nancy Ellis and Sue Collins. Mary E. VanNess is coach.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONS 1959

MHS Girls' Team Hockey Champs.

The Marshfield High School girls' field hockey team became the champions of the South Shore League last Friday by beating Scituate 2-0 to finish an undefeated season. The Marshfield girls played ten games and were scored against only in the Hanover game.

Marshfield was the victor over the following teams: Hingham (2-0); Hull (4-0); West Bridgewater (6-0); Cohasset (2-0); Norwell (4-0); Duxbury (1-0); East Bridgewater (6-0; Hanover (4-1; Holbrook (6-0) and Scituate (2-0).

The field hockey team, with members of the football team, will be honored at a dinner given by the Marshfield Boosters Club on December 3. At that time all juniors on the hockey team will receive letters and blazer jackets. A plaque, given by the Boosters' Club will also be presented to the team.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Co-champions again! Winning championships is an old story with the Marshfield High school basketeers. Our only loss was to Scituate, a perennial challenger which seems to stop our perfect record the very year we think we have it made. Our Holbrook game was the thriller of the season: we were far behind, then made a come-back and won in an overtime by three lucky points. Our Hull game was the one in which we white-washed their team, winning over them by fourteen points. Our most exciting and disappointing game was naturally the Scituate game when the score see-sawed, and we learned at the last minute that they were the winners, not we! Another season and again we are looking forward to next year. Many seniors will be missing, but energetic underclassmen have the courage and stamina to give Marshfield High another championship and winning season. Our grateful thanks to the cheerleaders, to our coach, and to the student body for backing us up.
